

Oath

I,, hereby take the pledge that I along with my friends will participate in the people's parliament (Jan Sansad) proposed to be held in Delhi to press for the demand of the passage of Janlokpal Bill, and I will fight with my full strength to create a corruption-free society. I also take the pledge that I will always be ready to go to jail, take part in the movement or sit on a hunger strike. I have full faith in Anna Hazare and the people of India. I will give the highest priority to the work of changing the country.
